

Draw an abstracted self-portrait of your interiority

Sculpt a surreal figure of the external environment

Bring both of these elements together

Nick Cave is a Chicagoan artist who often creates these beautiful Soundsuits influenced by African art traditions, especially ceremonial dress. Many of his suits are also made from found objects, depicting the social and material culture.

Dan Flavin(1933-1996), was a New York artist who did many installations involving colored fluorescent lights. He was in the military as an air weather meteorological technician. A lot of Flavin's works honored his loved ones.

